

Jeroni Fajardo is third at the Palma Indoor Trial

RAGA (GAS GAS) WINS AND CLOSES THE GAP TO THE LEAD

Palma de Mallorca, Balearic Islands, 24 October 2004.– The two «Jordi Tarrés-GAS GAS» works riders, Adam Raga and Jeroni Fajardo, have climbed onto the rostrum of the Trial Indoor Motor Shock Ciudad de Palma, held before a numerous crowd at the San Moix sports arena in the capital of the Balearic Islands last night. It was the seventh round of the Spanish Indoor Championship.

After an excellent performance, Adam Raga has scored his third win of the season, beating the current Championship leader Albert Cabestany, and shortening the gap by three points in the process. This leaves him second, just one point behind Cabestany in the Championship standings before the next round, to be held in Girona at the weekend. «The key was the fact that there were straight steps. With straight steps, it is very unlikely for me to drop a foot in the sections; as there were two sections with this type of steps, I was able to get a good advantage,» commented the GAS GAS rider from Tarragona. On his part, Jeroni Fajardo climbed onto the third step of the rostrum right behind Cabestany and keeps the sixth provisional championship place. Behind the three riders who went into the final heat finished Marc Colomer (GAS GAS), Marc Freixa and Isaac Pons, who was also riding a TXT 280.

After the seventh Indoor Spanish Championship round, the works GAS GAS trial riders are ready to face a very busy weekend: on Friday, Adam will take part in a trial show in Reims, France, on Sunday he will be at the start of the last valid round for the outdoor Spanish Trial Championship in Alcañiz, and he will finish by entering the Girona Indoor Trial at the Fontajau Sports Arena on 1 November. This event will also count on the show of the Extreme rider Julien Dupont, who will perform nearly impossible acrobatics at the commands of his trial GAS GAS.
